

RS1

Who did what? Which person is being referred to here?

Thomas Bludworth the Mayor (write TB)

Samuel Pepys (write SP)

James Duke of York (write JDY)

King Charles (write KC)

1. He was weak and couldn't cope.
2. He got really involved and gave some of his troops to help fight the fire
3. He said the fire wasn't very big and could easily be put out.
4. He spoke to the navy who agreed to blow up houses to stop the fire spreading
5. He personally sailed down the Thames to see what was going on and took brave decisions
6. He told Bludworth that he had to pull down more houses
7. He was afraid of upsetting important people so he didn't order their houses to be pulled down
8. He told the King and the Duke of York that they urgently needed to start pulling down houses	