

Lands of Awe and Wonder

Maths: Capacity and Volume, Fractions, Money, Time, Shape, Statistics

RE: Hinduism –The Importance of the River Ganges.
Sikhism –Sharing and showing commitment to God.

French: ‘Les glaces’ (Ice creams) and ‘Le Petit Chaperon Rouge’ – the fairy tale of Little Red Riding Hood in French.

Geography: Are all settlements the same? Exploring different types of settlement, land use and the difference between urban and rural. Exploring and comparing the differences between land use in New Delhi and in the local area.

English: Varied writing genres linked to topics including: retells, a postcard, a non-chronological report, a persuasive advert, a character description, a recount and instruction writing.

DT: Textiles – Egyptian collars

PE: Rounders, Cricket and Athletics

Art: Sculpture and 3D: Abstract Shape.

Science:
Animals - Movement and Nutrition.
Plants - Plant Reproduction.

History: What was important to ancient Egyptians? Investigating the River Nile, ancient Egyptian gods and goddesses and beliefs about the afterlife.

Music: Peter and the Wolf –how music can be used to tell a story. Introducing the instruments of the orchestra. Who was Sergei Prokofiev?