

The billeting officer knocks at the door and Tom opens it.

Willie has a good look around the room but doesn't say anything.

Tom takes Willie into the living room. He looks around and sees the church.

Tom goes out and Willie is left alone.

Willie meets his new teacher Mrs Hartridge and her husband.

Tom looks at the bedraggled and scared evacuees. The billeting officer pushes Willie forward and walks briskly away.

Willie makes a mark for Tom to make him a coat peg.

Tom makes Willie some food and he eats it.

Willie goes out and looks around the churchyard.

