

LO: To use commas to clarify the meaning of a sentence.

1. Can you insert commas into the following passage wherever they are needed to clarify the meaning of the sentences so the passage makes sense?

One day a motorist was driving along humming singing and talking. As he looked out of the window he noticed a sign. 'Slow - Children crossing' it said. "Careful children!" said his wife who was sitting alongside him. Outside he saw clouds a school and children everywhere. Some were already eating friends walking alongside them.

"It's going to be a good day break can't be far off," he said.

"They're off home work to do," she replied.

"They know schools out here in the country," said his wife.
