

Lands of Awe and Wonder

Maths: Capacity and Volume, Fractions, Money, Time, Shape, Statistics

RE: Hinduism –The Importance of the River Ganges.
Sikhism - Sharing and showing commitment to God.

French: ‘Le Petit Chaperon Rouge’ – the fairy tale of Little Red Riding Hood and ‘Les glaces’ (Ice creams)

Geography: Are all settlements the same? Exploring different types of settlement, land use and the difference between urban and rural. Exploring and comparing the differences between land use in New Delhi and in the local area.

English: Varied writing genres linked to topics : retells, a postcard, a non-chronological report, a persuasive advert, a character description, a recount and instruction writing.

PE: Rounders, Cricket and Athletics

Art: Making Egyptian scrolls

Science:
Animals - Movement and Nutrition.
Plants - Plant Reproduction.

History: What was important to ancient Egyptians? Investigating the River Nile, ancient Egyptian gods and goddesses and beliefs about the afterlife.

Music: Ballads and Developing Singing Techniques